The new reorganization seems to be transforming into an advocacy group, very similar to CalSac. Pader and the new board are interested in becoming more autonomous. We need to decide what we want our role to be. Are we going to play the advisor/liaison role? What is the position of the Academic Senate and the Chancellor's Office? We should all be on the same page and in agreement of how we will be supporting or assisting. We need to look into our last Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

Meeting held two weeks ago and there seems to be confusion of our role as CCCSAA. There is an interest in an advisor which they would elect at their level.
